

MAYLEI BLACKWELL

"The Story and the Gift: What working with Indigenous Migrants taught Me about Oral History Methods"

Sunday, April 29
Fullerton Marriott
Grand Ballroom
11:15 am-12:45 pm

Join us for the Southwest Oral History Association 2018 Conference Plenary Session and Brunch with Dr. Maylei Blackwell. Dr. Blackwell has worked with Indigenous social movements in Mexico for over twenty years. For the last ten years, she has led community-based and collaborative projects with migrant Indigenous communities from Mexico and Guatemala who live and work in Los Angeles. Her research focuses on the intersection of women's rights and indigenous rights within Mexico and California as well as global struggles for indigenous rights.
